

Lecture

- In the lecture on May 11 we discussed the rest of Part Five of the book (Chapters 14 and 15). I presented in the lecture the command line encryption and signing tool (gpg). The computational complexity of Integer Factorization was discussed (sub-exponential, but super-polynomial).
- No exercise sessions are held this week. The TA will present the structure of a solution for the last mandatory assignment in the exercise session on.